

The Mandan Heritage Home

Tour is a cooperative effort between the Mandan Historical Society, the City of Mandan and the North Dakota Department of Transportation. The homes along this tour play an important role in the history of Mandan and its citizens.

MANDAN
Historical Society

F

or more information on the Mandan Heritage Home Tour and the Mandan Historical Society visit us at

Mandan Historical Society
411 West Main Street
Mandan, North Dakota

or on the web at www.mandanhistorical.org/heritagehomes

MANDAN
Historical Society

Welcome to the

MANDAN HERITAGE HOME

Tour

Look for this marker located outside each historic home. These markers give the history of the home, and its past and previous owners.

MANDAN HERITAGE HOME

201 7th Ave NW
The Stuart Dunlap Home

Local

The Stuart Dunlap Home, located at 201 7th Ave NW, is a historic home built in 1908. It was designed by architect George C. Stone and built by contractor John W. Dunlap. The home is a fine example of early 20th-century architecture and is one of the best-preserved homes in the area.

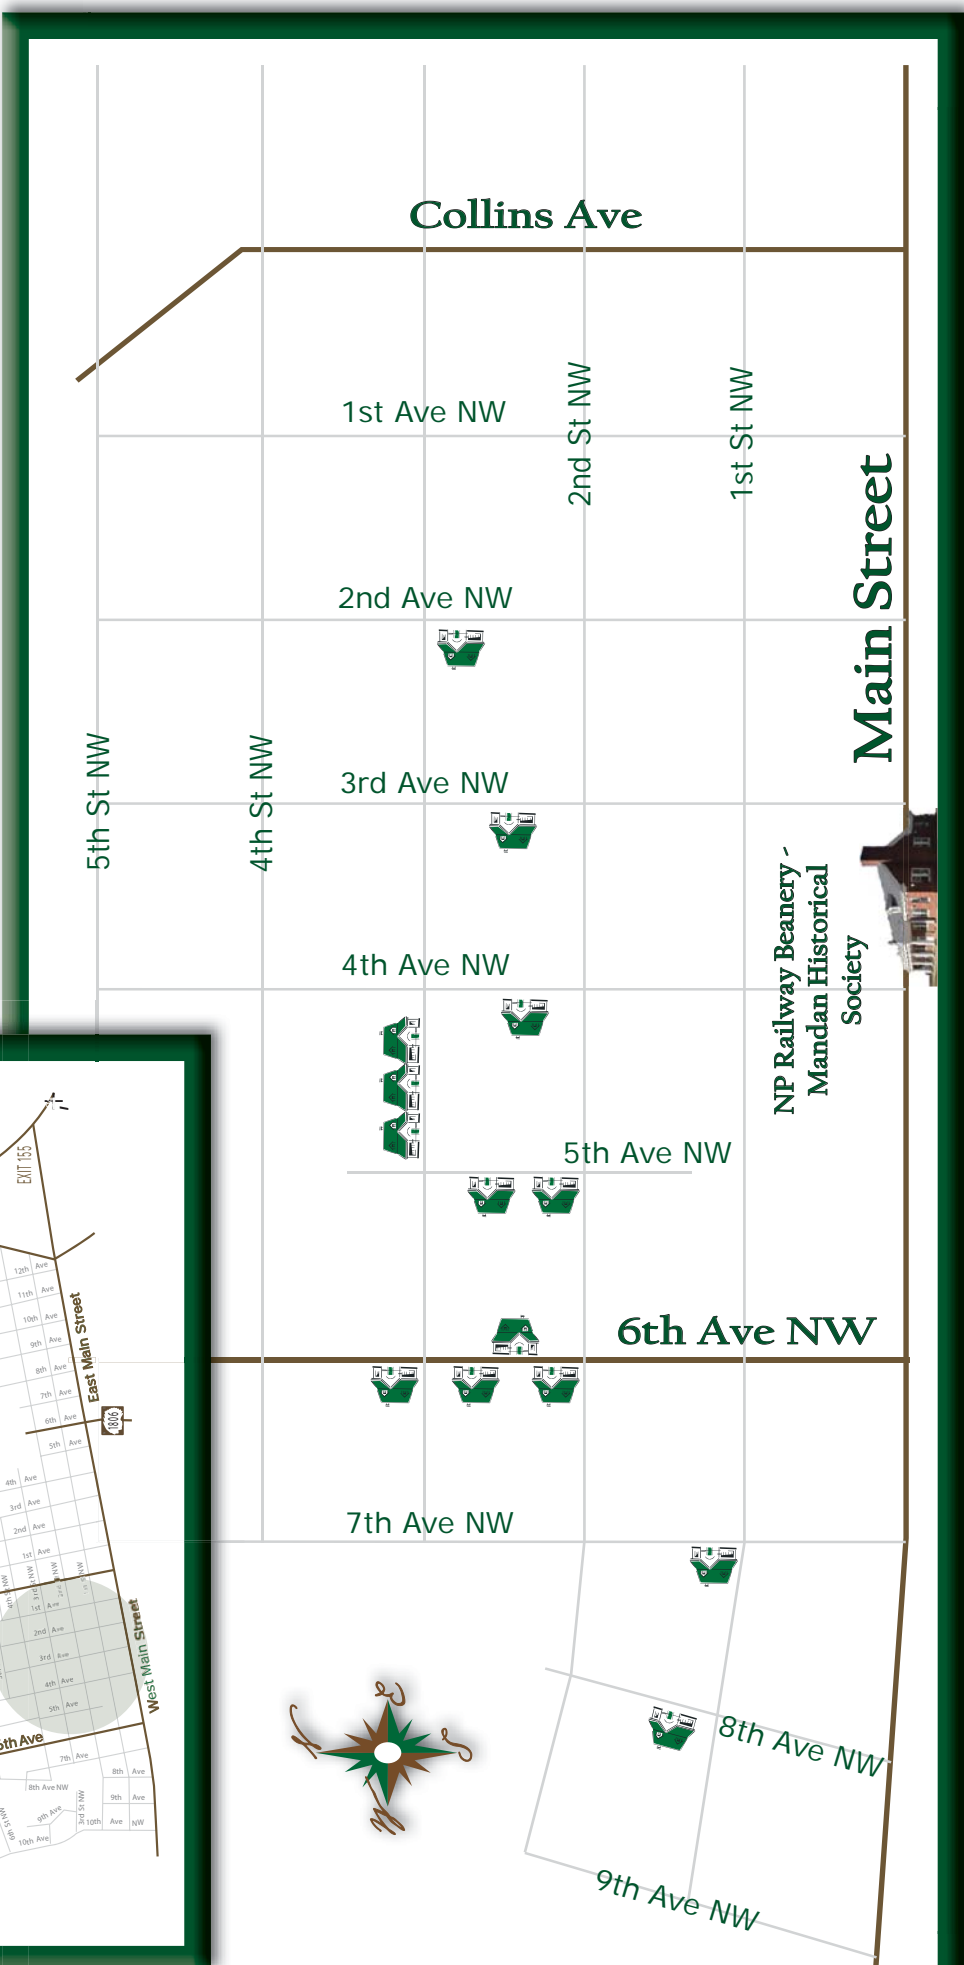

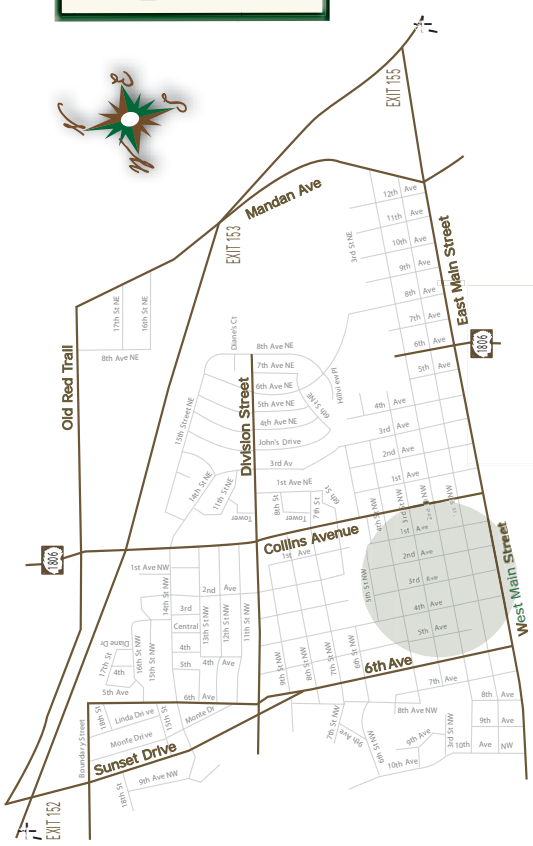

The home was purchased by Stuart Dunlap in 1908 and lived in by him and his family until 1945. It was then purchased by the NP Railway Beanyery - Mandan Historical Society in 1988. The home was part of the National Register in 1985.

The current house, constructed in 1908 and listed on the National Register in 1985, is a fine example of early 20th-century architecture.

The home was part of the National Register in 1985. It was designed by architect George C. Stone and built by contractor John W. Dunlap. The home is a fine example of early 20th-century architecture and is one of the best-preserved homes in the area.

The home was purchased by Stuart Dunlap in 1908 and lived in by him and his family until 1945. It was then purchased by the NP Railway Beanyery - Mandan Historical Society in 1988. The home was part of the National Register in 1985.

The current house, constructed in 1908 and listed on the National Register in 1985, is a fine example of early 20th-century architecture.

NP Railway Beanyery - Mandan Historical Society

Main Street

